Ashiya City Museum of Art and History Exhibit: "Reflection" by Tsuruko Yamazaki

This is the first solo exhibit at the Museum of Art and History by Tsuruko Yamazaki, an artist born and raised in Ashiya and who still lives in the city. The title of the exhibit, "Reflection," encompasses both the physical sense of reflection (han'ei) and mental or spiritual sense (seisatsu). It refers to the reflection of multicolored light cast on her metal works. Also, instead of giving in to the common influences found in artwork of the same generation, Yamazaki seeks to create art that encompasses both conflict and reflective thought. This exhibit, which highlights a total of six key words ("reflection," "color," "confusion," "metallic," "stripe" and "title"), reflects modern sensibilities by the addition of a space where new concepts are created instead of placing works by chronological order.

The exhibit will include paintings (representational and abstract), objets d'art, and videos dating from the early 1950s to recent times. There will be a total of about 50 pieces.

Dates: July 10 (Sat.) through August 29 (Sun.) Place: Ashiya City Museum of Art and History Hours: 10:00 – 17:00 (admission until 16:30) Closed: Mondays (Tuesday if Monday is a holiday)
